THE VINDICATOR

Of the Ancient Order and Self-denying Principles of the Church, as taught by the Savior and held forth by the Fathers of our Fraternity.

"I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE." St. John 14:6.

"Thus saith the Lord, 'Stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the Old Paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls.' "

Vol. CXIX Union City, Ohio, January, 1988 No. 1

A PRAYER FOR THE YEAR THAT IS NEAR

Dear Master, for this coming year,
Just one request I bring.
I do not pray for happiness
Or any earthly thing;

I do not ask to understand
The way Thou leadest me;
But this I ask — teach me to do
The thing that pleaseth Thee.

I want to know thy guiding voice,
To walk with Thee each day.
Dear Master, make me swift to hear
And ready to obey;

And thus the year I now begin
A happy year will be,
If I am seeking just to do
The thing that pleaseth Thee.

THE VINDICATOR

THERE'S A REASON

For ev'ry pain, that we must bear,
For ev'ry burden, ev'ry care,
There's a Reason.

For ev'ry grief, that bows the head,
For ev'ry teardrop that is shed,
There's a Reason.

And if we trust God, as we should,
It all will work out for our good,
He knows the Reason.

Sel. by Lydia Miller, Waverly, Kan.

"God will mend even a broken heart if we give Him all the pieces."

OBITUARIES

BOWMAN — Janet Rose, the daughter and fourth child of Bro. Ezra L. and Sister Susie (Boone) Bowman, was born in Roanoke, Virginia, on March 15, 1963. She passed away on June 30, 1987, at the age of 24 years.

Preceding her in death were Gail Areda, a sister, who died in infancy; and a grandmother, Sister Susie (Beckner) Bowman. Remaining to cherish the memories of her life are her parents; 3 sisters and a brother-in-law, Linda L. Bowman, Gladys K. Bowman, and Gloria and James W. Sisco; 2 brothers and a sister-in-law, Billy and Lisa (Bower) Bowman, and Ben Bowman; her grandparents, Bro. and Sister Cline and Maggie Boone, and Bro. Roy Bowman; a special friend, Bro. Joey Jones (engaged to be her future bridegroom); 2 nieces; 2 nephews; and many friends and acquaintances.

She was baptized on July 6, 1979, into the Old German Baptist Church to which she remained faithful. In our opinion, due to circumstances beyond her control, she condemned herself unjustly and struggled intensely for inner peace, contentment, and happiness. At the same time, she gave unselfishly of her love, encouragement, and kindness to her family, friends and acquaintances, not wanting to be a burden to others.

She enjoyed singing and painting. Love for the Lord was evident in her heart and daily life. She lived as she sincerely believed God was guiding her. She left this world a legacy of good will and love for humankind. It will be glorious to join our Gail Areda and Janet in Heaven. We leave her in the hands of a just and merciful God who doeth all things well. "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live" (John 11:25).

She will be remembered for her constant smile, tender heart, meekness, humility, thoughtfulness, concern for others, and dedication to her Heavenly Father.

A brief service was conducted at Lynch Funeral Home and continued at the Oak Hill meetinghouse by the home brethren with a large, overflowing crowd attending. Scriptures used were Ps. 23, and Luke 10:27, "And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, . . and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself." Hymns used were 378 in the opening service, 392 and 393, selected by the family, in the main service, with 404 and 246 at the graveside. Burial was in the Church cemetery.

Hope Dunkard Brethren Home, near Manheim, Lancaster Co., Pennsylvania, on Oct. 10, 1987, at the age of 74 years, 4 months, and 28 days.

THERE'S A REASON

For every pain that we must bear,
For every sorrow we may share,
There's a Reason.

For every grief that bows the head,
For every tearstop that is shed,
There's a Reason.

And it is sure God, in His mercy,
Has a plan for you and me,
He knows the Reason.

Poem by Linda Stone, Waverly, Kan.

OBITUARIES

BOTTMAN — Carol Ann, the daughter and fourth child of Rev. Leon H. and Elsie Gene (Brown) Bottman, was born in Glenside, Virginia, on March 16, 1960. She passed away on June 27, 1985, at the age of 25 years, 3 months, and 11 days.

Preceding her in death were two brothers, a sister, who died in infancy, and grandfather, Glenn Dale (Buster) Brown. Surviving to cherish the memories of her are her parents, 3 sisters, and 4 brothers-in-law, Linda L. Bowman, Dahlia M. Thomas, and Lois and Joyce M. Joyce 2 for Lois and a sister, Judy and Lisa Bottman; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Dale Brown; paternal grandparents, Rev. and Sister Clive and Myrtle Bottman; and numerous a special friend, Jim Ann Gray. Services to be Rev. Rodgerson, 2 sisters, 2 nephews, and many friends and acquaintances.

Carol received Jesus Christ as her Savior at the Glenview Baptist Church in early childhood. In our opinion, due to circumstances beyond her control, she was denied normal maturity and struggled to identify for many years, unsuccessfully and unnecessarily. At the same time, she was a delight to her home, accomplishing and obedient to her family, friends and acquaintances, not wanting to be a burden to others.

She enjoyed singing and playing. Love for her Lord was evident in her heart and daily life. She lived as she sincerely believed God was pleasing her. In this world's system of good will she lived for approval. If the undersigned assisted by Elder Allen B. Eberly of the Dunkard Brethren Church. Scriptures used were Matt. 6:19-34 and 1 Cor. 15:53-58. Hymns used were 384, 491, and 483. Burial took place in the adjoining cemetery by the side of her companion, to await the resurrection morn.

Hazel was united in marriage to Clarence John Rule on Dec. 24, 1932.

On Aug. 4, 1936, she and Dad were baptized into the Old German Baptist Church, to which they remained faithful till death.

Mother leaves to mourn her departure, her daughter, Sister Phyllis M. Garber, her son, Claredon B. Her love and affection was shared with family and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by the home brethren at the Brown Funeral Home and the North Fork meetinghouse on Nov. 14, at 10:00 a.m. The text was taken from Prov. 31 and Rev. 21 and 22. Hymns used were 116, 385, 359, and 455. Burial was in the Middle Fork Cemetery.

May our loss be her eternal gain.

The Family

SELBY — Lloyd Eben, son of Frank and Maude (Garber) Selby, was born Sept. 2, 1920, at Modesto, California, and departed this life at the Tuolumne General Hospital, Sonora, California, Nov. 22, 1987. His sojourn on earth was 67 years, 2 months, and 20 days.

In his early life he lost the guiding influence of a father. Living near his grandparents on a farm west of Modesto, Daddy learned the occupation he most enjoyed. He continued farming until moving to the Sierra-Nevada Mountains, near Twain Harte.

Hearing the call of the Savior, Nov. 1938, Daddy made his covenant with Christ and was baptized into the old German Baptist Brethren Church. He lived faithful to his vows, leaving us the example of the pilgrim, who through faith looked for a city whose builder and maker is God.

Oct. 27, 1946, he was united in marriage with Clara Elizabeth Wray. To this union were born 6 children. Preceding him in death were 1 son, Paul Robert at the tender age of 16, in 1968; and 2 grandchildren, Jamin Eric Fisher, at birth in 1976, and Joel Eben Selby in 1985.

Our early family years were spent close to

Dad's home place on Shackleford Rd., and later, at the end of Sisk Rd., near Salida. These years were happy times, mingled with bits of sorrow and some of struggle, yet continue to afford us the fond memories of our loving daddy and husband. In the summer of 1966, we moved to the vicinity of Twain Harte. Here, working in the construction trades, he made many new friends and was neighbor to all. One of his greatest earthly pleasures was sharing his bountiful garden with others.

In 1981, before surgery, he requested the anointing, from which he received much comfort and strength.

In 1982, Dad entered the valley of the shadow and nearly passed from this life from bleeding and a blood clot on the brain. He again was restored to health, and though often patiently suffering from the effects of injury, his thoughts were more of others, spreading love and cheer. Once again, on Nov. 7, 1987, after an eventful day, he suffered a massive cerebral hemorrhage from which he never recovered. His last days were spent in a coma, lingering on the brink, until the final call of the Master. All the children were present as his spirit took its flight homeward.

Daddy had a special love and concern for his children and grandchildren, being the example of a tender, caring shepherd. His deep faith in God and love for the Church will be missed by all who knew him.

He is survived by his loving companion; 4 sons and their wives, Douglas and Martha, Curtis and Betty, Benjamin and Joanne, and Timothy and Barbara; 1 daughter and her husband, Cynthia and Donald Fisher; 16 grandchildren; 2 sisters, Vera Wray, and Evelyn Peters and her husband, Raymond; 3 brothers and their companions, Melvin and Ruth, Elmer and Leona, and Roy and Dorothy; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted Nov. 25, at 10:00 a.m., in the Sierra Pines meetinghouse by Elder Howard Oyler, Elder Norman Boyd, and Bro. Ronald Miller. Comforting and assuring words were given from God's Holy Word, reminding us that what is planted, shall rise again. "It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption . . ."; Spring is coming. At 2:30 p.m., a short service was conducted by Bro. Dennis Wray and a viewing was held at the graveside to a large sympathizing crowd. His body was laid to rest in the Wood Colony Cemetery, only to wait until our Lord should come to gather His children home. We believe that our loss is his eternal gain.

The Family

FERGUSON — Frances, daughter of John and Anne (Campbell) Ginn, was born Nov. 13, 1904. After months of patient suffering she left this earth for her "Better Home" in the early morning of Monday, Dec. 7, 1987, at Heathergreene Nursing Home, in Jamestown, Ohio, at the age of 83 years and 24 days.

On March 19, 1927, she was united in marriage with Horace E. Ferguson and this union was blessed with one daughter.

For a number of years she taught at the Kennedy School for the Deaf, in Dayton. Frances was also quite active in 4-H Club work and for a number of years enjoyed working with the Grange.

In Oct., 1975, she with her husband were baptized into the Old German Baptist Church in the Bear Creek district where they have been much loved and appreciated.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Mabel Conner; and a great-grandchild.

Those who will miss her most are her loving husband, Horace; her daughter, Mrs. Robert (Doris) Rhodes; 3 grandchildren, Dennis Rhodes, Barbara Simpson, and Kathleen Mathews; and 3 great-grandchildren, Johnathan Rhodes, Natalie and Gerald Mathews.

Her sweet disposition of patience and loving kindness will be missed by the Church she loved and by whom she was loved but we are assured that our loss is all gain for her.

Funeral services were held from the Neeld Funeral Home in Xenia, Ohio, on Wednesday, Dec. 11, by the undersigned and Elder Kenneth Miller. Hymns used were 455 and 403 with the text being taken from 1 Cor. 15 — "Victory."

Burial was in the Jamestown Cemetery following graveside services by Bro. Michael Miller.

We wait in hope on the promise given — We will meet up there in our Home in Heaven.

HAVE YOU MADE YOUR RESERVATION?

Often trips and great occasions
Require a reservation,
And every invitation asks for your reply.
When you feel the Spirit calling
It's time to give your answer
To the Savior's invitation
For a journey to the sky.

Have you made your reservation
For a place to spend forever;
A happy ever after
'Cause you know you can't stay here?
Jesus thought of you on Calvary,
Sent a special invitation.
Hurry make your reservation
For the time is drawing near.

The Father planned a wedding supper
For the bridegroom and the bride.
When the roll is called up yonder;
You'll be so glad you came.
Soon the guests will all be seated,
All the saints are standing by,
And a place at the table
Waits for you in Jesus' name.

MY PRAYER

This is a prayer that I need to pray
To our God in Heaven, each and every day.
"Help me to bridle my unruly tongue
So I'll not speak unkindly of anyone.
Help me instead to pray for them,
Because my faults, by Thee are known.
Help me dear Lord, to lend a helping hand
To the fallen ones, so they again can stand.
Help my light to so shine before men,
So they may glorify Thee, our Father in Heaven.
Give me strength and patience and love,
To help me onward to that Home above.
And then, dear Lord, help me to always forgive,
And be more Christ-like, and in Him live."

— Sharon Gross, Bradford, Ohio

THE FRIEND WHO STANDS BY

When troubles come your soul to try,
You love the friend who just stands by.
Perhaps there's nothing he can do;
The things are strictly up to you,
For there are troubles all your own,
And paths the soul must tread alone;
Times when love can't smooth the road,
Nor friendship lift the heavy load.
But just to feel you have a friend,
Who will stand by until the end;
Whose sympathy through all endures,
Whose warm handclasp is always yours.
It helps somewhat to pull you through,
Although there's nothing he can do;
And so with fervent heart we cry,
"God bless the friend who just stands by."

SOMEWHERE

Somewhere in the fiercest storm . . .
We find the winds are calm;
Somewhere on a painful bed . . .
We find a healing balm.

Somewhere in the darkest night . . .
We find a candle glows;
Somewhere in a rushing stream . . .
We find it smoothly flows.

Somewhere in the blackest cloud . . .
We find a silver line;
Somewhere in our busy lives . . .
We find some unused time.

Somewhere all our grief and woes . . .
Will swiftly pass away;
Oh the joy that burns within . . .
If we can truly say . . .

Sorrows are a steppingstone
Toward our Eternal Goal,
Where we will reign forever
With Him who blessed our soul!

— Tom and Betty Eller, Cleveland, Ga.

OBITUARIES

FLORA — Bertha Marie, daughter of Frank and Ida (Kendall) Lowe, was born Feb. 18, 1897, near Burrows, Indiana. She departed this life at 6:00 a.m., Tuesday morning, Aug. 25, 1987, at the home of a son, Fred F. Flora, making her sojourn here 90 years, 6 months, and 7 days.

She was united in marriage with Lloyd C. Flora, Feb. 6, 1916. They lived in the vicinity of Flora, Indiana, most of their married life.

In the fall of 1923, mother with her companion were baptized into the fellowship of the Old Brethren German Baptist Church, where her husband was called to the Ministry 6 months later.

Preceding her in death were her husband, Dec. 1, 1970; 2 sons, Clyde M. and Calvin F.; 2 sons-in-law, Raymond Flory and Benjamin Lavy; 1 brother, Fred Lowe; 1 sister, Agnes Lowe; and 3 great-grandchildren.

Survivers include 2 sons, Fred F., and his companion, and Lloyd I., and his companion; 2 daughters, Venna Flory, and Audrey Lavy; a daughter-in-law, Ruth Flora; 29 grandchildren; 72 great-grandchildren; and 7 great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Aug. 27, at the Old Brethren German Baptist church by the home brethren. Burial was made in the Musselman Cemetery.

The Family

GOLL — Delbert R., son of John and Nora (Binkley) Goll, was born May 19, 1903, in Montgomery Co., Ohio. On Jan. 1, 1925, he was united in marriage with Alice Haacke. They enjoyed over 60 years together until separated by Alice's death in Dec., 1985.

He was a retired government employee. He had been active in a charitable organization until just prior to his death. For the last several years he made his home in Friendship Village retirement center. There he kept busy doing small appliance repair for others. He also crocheted a number of afghans which he gave as a labor of love to relatives and friends.

He was baptized into the German Baptist fellowship on Jan. 15, 1982, and lived a faithful and dedicated life. He called for and received the anointing service on Nov. 6, 1987. He departed this life suddenly in the early morning hours of Dec. 10, 1987, at the age of 84 years, 6 months, and 21 days.

Preceding him in death were his companion; his parents; and 1 brother, Gilbert. He leaves to mourn his departure several cousins, and nieces and nephews by marriage. Because of her endearing attention, a niece, Janet Patterson had a special place in the heart of our loved one. To know him was to love him.

Funeral services were held Dec. 14, at the Gilbert Funeral Home in Brookville, and at the Stillwater meetinghouse. Services were conducted by the home brethren assisted by Elder John Layman. Scriptures used were Ps. 23, 90, 121, and Acts 13:14-23. Hymns chosen were 409, 421, 459, and 457. The burial was in Glen Haven Memorial Gardens to await the call to meet the Lord in the air.

Eldon Denlinger

BOWERS — Gerald (Jerry) Lynn, was born on Oct. 25, 1968, in Canton, Ohio, to Bro. Robert W. and Sister Ruth E. (Cook) Bowers.

On March 29, 1987, he accepted the call and was baptized into the fellowship of the Old German Baptist Church, to which he lived faithful until death.

Jerry was united in marriage on June 20, 1987, with Sister Julia T. Price, and they enjoyed almost 6 months of happy married life together. One of their most present and precious ambitions was to get a home started, where together they could raise a family. They both loved children and often took care of nephews, nieces, and others.

He was employed at Rockwood, Inc., at Goshen, for the past year. On Dec. 15, 1987, a very stormy day, after returning home from work, he went to help a fellow worker to clear away a tree which had blown down across his driveway. The tree had caught in high tension wires, which he accidently touched, snuffing out life in a moment. Emergency help was summoned immediately, but all the efforts, with love, care and prayer were futile in trying to recall that which God had taken. He passed away at the age of 19 years, 1 month, and 20 days.

He leaves to mourn his departure his loving companion; his parents; 2 brothers, Dennis and his wife, Treva, and Bro. Roger and his wife, Sister Valerie; 1 sister, Beverly; 2 nephews; 4 nieces; his parents-in-law, Roger and Roberta Price; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Jerry was a very loving person and will be sorely missed, but we sorrow not as those who have no hope, and trust our loss is his eternal gain.

Funeral services were conducted Friday, Dec. 18, in the Eel River meetinghouse by the home brethren. The text was, "Be ye also ready." He was buried in the cemetery by the church, there to await the resurrection morn.

His Family

GARBER — Harry B., was born Sept. 22, 1893, in Franklin Co., Pennsylvania, the son of Mahlon and Emma (Benedict) Garber. In 1917, he was baptized into the Old German Baptist Church in the Falling Spring congregation. In 1918, he was called from home and served time in Camp because of his nonresistant convictions.

On Dec. 2, 1919, he was united in marriage with Sarah Myers, and together they raised a family of 2 sons and 1 daughter, providing for them by the occupation of farming and marketing. In his later years, he called for the anointing service on two different occasions, which seemed to comfort and strengthen him. In Sept. 1982, he fell and broke his hip, after which he was never able to walk again.

He and his companion spent the last 7 years at the Piney Mountain Home for the aged, where he passed from time to eternity Dec. 17, 1987, at the age of 94 years, 2 months, and 25 days.

He lived a long and useful life and we feel that he will enjoy that "rest that remaineth for the people of God."

He is survived by his companion, Sister Sarah; 2 sons, Joe M. Garber and Bro. Ralph F. Garber; 1 daughter, Sister Gladys Bowman; 10 grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; and 1 brother, Bro. Dennis Garber.

Funeral services were held Dec. 21, at the Falling Spring meetinghouse by the home brethren. His body was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery to await the resurrection morning.

She labored faithfully with her companion in the Deacon's office from 1928 to 1935, when they were called to the Ministry and then to the Eldership in 1943. She was a tireless worker with her children and on the farm where she resided with her husband near Lapel, Indiana. On Dec. 17, 1916, she was united in marriage with Jacob Frantz, who preceded her in death, Oct. 30, 1985.

She and her companion were baptized into the Old German Baptist Church on May 20, 1917, to which faith she held firmly until death. On Aug. 6, 1925, she and her companion were elected to the Ministry, and they were ordained to the Eldership on Feb. 7, 1946.

In Sept., 1978, with their failing health, Mother and Dad entered Miller's Merry Manor of Warsaw, Indiana, where they spent their remaining days. Before entering the Home, she received the anointing.

Mother will be remembered for her kind, gentle way and for always being there.

Surviving her are 3 sons, Paul, Robert and his wife, Esther, Bro. Leon and his wife, Sister Opal; 1 daughter, Sister Helen Fingerle and her husband, Bro. Chester; 12 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; 4 great-great-grandchildren; 1 sister, Sister Mabel Brubaker; and many other relatives and friends. Preceding her in death was 1 great-great-grandchild.

We trust our loss will be her eternal gain.

The text used was 1 Peter 3:4, "even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price." The virtues of holy women of the Bible were expounded to us, reminding us how we should live. Hymns 483, 392, and 384 were used at the church, and hymns 459, 393, 455, and 403 at the grave.

Burial took place in the church cemetery by the side of her companion, to await the resurrection morn.

CABLE — Ruth S., daughter of Elder Jacob D. and Anna (Cassel) Miller, was born June 5, 1896, near Astoria, Illinois, and departed this life at Snyder's Nursing Home, Rushville, Illinois, on Dec. 24, 1987, at the age of 91 years, 6 months, and 19 days.

On Nov. 25, 1920, she was united in marriage to Cecil R. Cable and together they shared their joys and sorrows for over 67 years. To this union were born 2 children, 1 daughter, Erma Elizabeth, and 1 son, Charles Richard who passed away Dec. 20, 1960.

Surviving to cherish the memory of a loving mother are her companion; her daughter and her companion, Gale D. Geiman; 1 daughter-in-law, Charlene (Cable) Kirkbride; 4 grandchildren; 9 great-grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents; 3 brothers; and 3 sisters.

She was baptized into the Old German Baptist Church early in life and remained faithful until death. She, with her companion, were installed into the office of Deacon in 1932. Their concern and many acts of kindness remain as a tribute to their devotion.

During an earlier illness, she called for the anointing and was greatly comforted. As long as health permitted they shared their home with others. Many are they who remember her as one who enjoyed her home as well as gardening and working with flowers.

She was very devoted to her Church and family and we feel our loss is her eternal gain.

Services were conducted at the Mud Valley meetinghouse from 1 Peter 3:1-6, on Dec. 29, by Bro. Arthur Cook and the undersigned. Burial was made in the cemetery nearby in hope of the resurrection.

She was a faithful attendant of the Old German Baptist Brethren Church until within a few weeks of her passing. Failing health was complicated by a broken hip which resulted in death at the Wabash Co., Hospital, Dec. 24, 1987, at the age of 78 years, 9 months, and 7 days.

FLORA — Mary Kathryn, daughter of Russell Harrison and Linnie S. (Gascho) Flory, was born Sept. 19, 1920, in Clark Co., near Springfield, Ohio. In 1921, they moved to near Rossville, Indiana. This home circle was broken when mother left for Eternity's shore on May 19, 1923, after which her mother's sister, Aunt Cora Gascho, became the wife of her father, hence a mother, to whom she gave sincere love and affection. The years of her youth were spent in activities with friends, neighbors, and church associates.

In the year 1937, she, with five other friends were received into fellowship with Jesus in the old German Baptist Church by baptism at the hands of Elder Jacob W. Skiles. Elder Solomon Stoner had the message at church that day. From henceforth her interest was for souls to accept Jesus. She would tell the whole world!

Being of a lovely and Christ-like nature she gave a young man, Myrl Flora, the privilege of becoming his bride, a beautiful Christian bride, and she always remained just as lovely in heart and character. Bro. Jacob Skiles officiated and blessings from God were upon them. They were blessed with 4 daughters. This home was established in the Stillwater district, near Dayton, Ohio. Their home was blessed with love, joys, and successes. God helped them in their trials, burdens, and losses. "I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee" (Heb. 13:5). Praise God for all things; His Word was her staff.

In 1948, she, with her husband were called to the Ministry of God's Word at Stillwater. They were ordained in 1958, shepherding the flock together since 1974.

Mary Kathryn was a good housekeeper, lovely wife, mother, and grandmother. The furtherance of God's Kingdom and growth also at Stillwater was always a great concern of her heart.

Her heart and soul were so much stronger than her body. Her faith bore her weakening body through the years. To live with her was to understand and love her more every day. She received the anointing on several occasions, lastly on Nov. 12, 1987. In our hearts we approached the river of death together, however on Dec. 24, 1987, she stepped forward alone and met her Savior through the valley of death, aged 67 years, 3 months, and 5 days. She said, "either way, I'll be a winner!"

Treasuring the memories of our loved one are her bereaved but warrior-like husband; 3 daughters, Barbara Layman and husband, Robert, Bonita Burns and husband, Ray, Carolyn Stoner and husband, Robert; 11 grandchildren, training for the Kingdom of service; 3 sisters, Esther Flora and husband, Ralph, Mildred Peters and husband, Everett, and Carol Flory; 1 brother, David Flory and wife, Donnabelle; a son-in-law, Doyle Rogers; many nieces and nephews who were loved greatly by Aunt Mary Kathryn; a host of cousins, aunts, and uncles so dear to her heart; many other dear relatives, friends, loved ones in our Lord Jesus and many business associates of her husband.

Preceding her in death were her father; 2 mothers; 1 daughter, Susanne, in 1979; and 1 sister, Mabel, who died in infancy.

Home for Christmas! Her last words were "I love you," with a stroke on the cheek.

Services were conducted Dec. 29, at the Rogers Funeral Home, New Lebanon, Ohio, and concluded at the Stillwater meetinghouse by the home brethren. Scriptures used were John 17:11, 1 John 2:15, and 1 Cor. 15:51-58. Songs used were 422, 150, and 455. Burial was made in the Stillwater Cemetery, nearby, to await His glorious appearing.

BEACHLER — Fanny May, was born near Lawrence, Kansas on March 9, 1905, daughter of Chris Nelson and Mary Catherine (Gish) Peterson. She spent her youth in a family of 9 children, sharing many happy times on the family farm in the Willow Springs district. At the age of 16 years, Fanny accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior, and was baptized in Nov. 1921, by Elder Nicholas Crist, and became a member of the Old German Baptist Church.

In 1927, she came to Modesto, California, in which area she resided the rest of her life. Fanny was married to Dannie F. Beachler on April 11, 1928, by Elder Jacob A. Cover, at the home of her cousin on Beckwith Road. To this union were born 4 children, Shirley, Donovan, Rollin, and Mary Lee.

Our family will have cherished memories of Mother's loyalty, interest, and concern for us, her encouragement and example through times of trial, and her sharing of happiness through sweet times. She had many friends and greatly enjoyed association with them, and especially dear to her was her church fellowship. Until her health failed, she faithfully attended church services.

After an active and useful life, she became ill in Dec. 1982, and since Jan. 1983, she had been a patient at Evergreen Convalescent Hospital, Modesto, where her husband visited her faithfully every day for almost five years. Mother's victory came early Christmas morning and she was released from this life to be with her Lord. She died on Dec. 25, 1987, at the age of 82 years, 9 months, and 16 days.

She leaves her devoted companion of almost 60 years; and 3 children, Shirley Priebe, Donovan C. Beachler, and Mary Lee Crook. Dear to her heart were her 7 grandchildren, Leslie Garcia, Michael Priebe, Bambi Beachler, Ronda Slack, Mark Crook, Randahl Crook, and Daniel Crook; 7 great-grandchildren; 1 sister, Rose Gish; 1 brother, Vernon Peterson; nieces, nephews, and many relatives and friends.

Preceding her in death were her son, Rollin, on July 13, 1981; her father, in 1937; mother, in 1966; 5 brothers, Carl, Hallie, Ralph, Noah, and Leon Peterson; and 1 sister, Elsie Wingert.

MILLS — Herbert Jennings, was born to James and Lucendia (Mitchem) Mills, on March 15, 1902, Mercer Co., West Virginia, and departed this life at the Community Hospital, Princeton, West Virginia, on Dec. 30, 1987. His sojourn on earth was 85 years, 9 months, and 15 days.

Early in life he lost the guiding influence of a father, and was reared by his Mother. He learned the occupation of coal mining at the young age of 11 years. After working in the mines for 50 years, he retired in 1962. He then spent 24 winters in Florida, making it convenient to attend church services every Sunday, which he enjoyed very much. He enjoyed fishing in his retirement years.

Hearing the call of the Savior, he made his covenant with God and was baptized into the Old German Baptist Church in Sept., 1938. He lived faithful to his vows, leaving us an example of a pilgrim, who through faith, looked for a city whose builder and maker is God.

In 1943, we moved to a farm. Having plenty of room, we held church services at our home on the fourth Sunday of July, for 40 years. He looked forward to that time every year, until he was disabled by Alzheimer's disease, and no longer was able to host these meetings. After losing our only child, Jack, in 1982, he grew steadily worse until both mind and body were destroyed. He was placed in Billings Nursing Home for 1 year and 9 months before his passing. He had a special concern for his grandchildren and great-grandchildren, and was loved by all who knew him.

He is survived by his companion, Elsie; a loving daughter-in-law, Verleen Mills, who faithfully helped to care for him; 2 grandsons, Douglas and his wife, Teresa, and Arlon and his wife, Beverly; 4 great-grandchildren, Tracy, Eric, Leah, and Jeffry Mills; 2 step-grandchildren, Billie and Dawn Meadows, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Visitation was held at the Seaver Funeral Chapel, Princeton, with a large attendance of sympathizing friends and relatives.

Funeral services were conducted at the Funeral Chapel, on Jan. 2, 1988, at 1:00 p.m., by the home brethren, Charles and Daniel Sowers. Scriptures used were 1 Cor. 15, John 11, and Ps. 90. Hymns used were 455, 403, and 432. Comforting and assuring words were given from God's Holy Word, reminding us that what is planted shall rise again. Spring is coming. His body was laid to rest in the Roselawn Cemetery, Princeton. Hymns used were 385 and 398.

We wait in hope on the promise given — we will meet up there in our home in heaven.

Bitter, yes, but tears are cleansing;
They have washed the grieving heart.
And times window, blurred, is plainer —
Curtains drawn now seem to part.

As I realize that in sorrow,
Looking back through fleeting years,
Nothing's won by pining, grieving,
Nothing's won by future fears.

Lord, adapt me to these changes,
That I do His holy will!
May I in God's chain of changes
Be a link, my place to fill.

Look with faith into the future,
Gain, but lessons from the past,
Then rejoice for Christ is coming
For His saints on earth at last.

Live today that those who follow
May obey His precepts still,
And know this, that time nor changes,
Ever change His holy will.

Build upon that sure foundation
By His wisdom, hewn and laid;
Christ the rock of our Salvation
Bids us venture unafraid.

Conquer self and Satan's temptings,
Never lay the armor down,
For the victory lies before thee;
Linen robes and golden crown.

God determines when the trumpet,
Sounding over land and see,
Calls His saints to climes eternal,
When time and change no more shall be.

GISH — Ilden LeRoy, was born Dec. 19, 1899, at Coalinga, Fresno Co., California, the son of Bro. William and Sister Meda (Miller) Gish. In 1901, after spending some time in Fresno Co., the family moved back to Whittier, and then in Dec., 1904, Ilden came with his Grandmother Gish to Modesto, where his father and 2 brothers had previously moved. He, being deprived of a Mother due to a lingering illness, was raised by his Grandmother and his Uncle Noah Gish.

Ilden spent most of his entire life in the Modesto area, where he farmed for many years, mostly in the Beckwith Road area. Through the years he also worked for various brethren in fruit growing, packing, and grain harvesting.

On Dec. 15, 1925, he was married to Nellie Vivian Marconett. To this union were born 4 children, Harold, Marleta, Charlene, and Curtis. The family circle was broken when the youngest child, Curtis LeRoy, drowned on July 9, 1941, at the age of 19 months.

On March 18, 1928, Ilden was one of 8 that was baptized and became members of the Old German Baptist Church. Of this group of 8, he is the first to pass away.

Ilden's life as a Christian was one of rejoicing and he dearly enjoyed the fellowship with others that loved the Lord. He will long be remembered for his faithful church attendance. Dear to his heart was his family, and again with the passing of his beloved wife, Vivian, on Feb. 17, 1981, he made adjustments and was resigned to the will of the Lord.

With older age, he experienced declining health, and in March, 1987, he called for the anointing, and again Jan. 23, 1988. Daddy was a willing and tireless laborer and though his strength waned in his later years, he still did what he could for others. When his health became irreversible, he then expressed his desire to go to be with the Lord Jesus. Daddy passed to Life Eternal on the morning of Feb. 3, 1988, at his home near Modesto at the age of 88 years, 1 month, and 14 days.

He is survived by his son, Bro. Harold and his wife, Sister Mae; 2 daughters, Sister Marleta and her husband, Bro. Roger Haney, and Sister Charlene and her husband, Bro. Carroll Kessler; 10 grandchildren; 13 great-grandchildren, all who loved their Grandpa; and many other relatives and friends.

He was also preceded in death by his parents; 2 brothers, Bro. Albert Gish and Bro. Orvel Gish; 1 half brother, Floyd Gish; and 2 grandsons.

This ends the earthly life of one who had lived and labored faithfully for the Master till the end. He enjoyed many happy times with a large relationship and many friends.

The funeral was held in the Modesto Church on Saturday, Feb. 6, at 1:00 p.m., with Elders Aaron Miller and Roger Gish and Bro. John D. Rumble officiating. Hymns used were 499 and 150. Bro. Edward Gish officiated at the graveside service in the Wood Colony Cemetery. Several hymns were sung during the filling of the grave, closing with How Great Thou Art.

Maternal grandparents are Bro. Keith Jr. and Sister Lucille Bussey; great-grandparents, Bro. Keith and Sister Emma Bussey; and 1 great-grandmother, Pauline Flora.

At 2:00 p.m., Feb. 19, graveside services were conducted at the Palestine meetinghouse cemetery by Damon's grandfather, Isaac, assisted by the undersigned. Blessed thoughts were gleaned from Ps. 34, Mark 10:13,14, Rev. 21:4, and hymns 371, 375, and 445.

Losing this tiny, heavenly treasure leaves our hearts tender, yet uplifted to an Immortal God who has again reminded us that life is precious, fleeting, and forever His.

THROUGH THE RAIN

Although You send the sunshine, Lord,
Sometimes You send the rain;
And when those storm-clouds open up,
My whole life seems in vain.
That path that seemed to me so right,
Has led to hurt and tears,
There seems to be no way to turn,
I cry for wasted years.

I bombard heaven with my prayers,
"Dear Lord, please ease the pain,"
It's hard for me to look ahead
At what might be the gain.
I do not stop to realize
It's part of God's own plan
To show me what I cannot do,
My loving Savior can.

Now, as I turn my thoughts to Him,
And lift my eyes above,
He picks me up and shows me things
I'd never have dreamed of.
"I have a better plan for you,"
I hear my Savior say,
"A special purpose for your life,
If you'll but walk My way."

I know that in my future,
I'll look back upon this time,
And clearly see how through the rain,
He held His hand in mine.
I love You for the sunshine,
I thank You for the rain,
That taught me how to trust in You,
And brought me joy from pain.

OBITUARIES

ERROR IN OBITUARY

We regret that an editor's error occurred in the obituary of Ilden Gish, appearing in the March issue, on page 94. At the end of the first paragraph, it mistakenly reads, "his Uncle Noah Gish." It should have been, "his Uncle Nathan Gish."

Early in their married life, they established a home at the Wenrick home place where they farmed for the next 12 years. In 1922, they moved across the road, right north, and adjacent to the Palestine meetinghouse. For the next 45 years, Clarence served as the church janitor.

In 1925, he and his wife were called to the office of Deacon, in which he served faithfully. He loved to read and sing.

His livelihood and hobbies consisted of various things including beekeeping, shopwork, woodworking, and rug weaving. For a number of years he operated a saw sharpening service.

Bro. Clarence now rests in the care of the One who called him into the fold so many years ago. He who gave him length of days also promised Life Eternal and therein his hope lay.

BRUBAKER — Miriam (Flora), was born April 4, 1927, on a farm near Potsdam, Ohio, the daughter of John H. and Maudie (Rauch) Flora.

On Nov. 19, 1944, she submitted to Christian baptism uniting her with the Old German Baptist Church, to which she remained faithful.

Oct. 20, 1946, she was united in marriage with Christian Brubaker. They were blessed with 5 daughters, who so faithfully helped their father care for her through her declining days.

Jan. 16, 1988, in the presence of her family, she was anointed with oil. This Biblical rite gave her much comfort. Her Lord called her home Feb. 26, 1988, aged 60 years, 10 months, and 22 days.

Survivors include her companion; the 5 daughters, Marilyn Bullock with her husband, Robert, and their 7 children; Elaine Wheeler with her husband, James, and her son; Dianne McCloud with her husband, James, and their 2 sons; Susan Miller with her husband, Duane, and their 3 children; and Jenny Brubaker with her husband, Gene; her aged parents; 1 brother, Ralph Flora; 2 sisters, Velma Flory and Florence Wagoner; 1 uncle, Aaron Flora; and quite a few nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Her life was not of broad spectrum, but she was faithful to her family and attentive to their cares. Truly her last years were her best ones as she exemplified that meek and quiet spirit which is in the sight of God of great price.

Bro. Samuel Garber assisted the home brethren with the funeral services on March 1, held at the Upper Twin meetinghouse. Hymns used were 56, 491, 455, and 403. The text was taken from 2 Cor. 5:1-9. Interment was at Fairview Cemetery south of West Alexandria.

Thus we give back to the Lord that which He gave her parents over 60 years ago. We thank Him for the life lived, memories that remain, and the victory won. Quietly she came and quietly she left.

BLICKENSTAFF — Henry Everett, son of Everett and Ollie (Layman) Blickenstaff, was born Nov. 4, 1943, at Modesto, California.

On Oct. 7, 1962, Henry married Darla Ritter, and from that union was born 1 daughter, Lori Jean. On Aug. 30, 1974, Henry married Sue Hamilton, and they had 3 children, Melissa, Everett Jacob, and one child that preceded him in death. Henry also adopted Sue's son, Jason. He had 1 grandson, Drew.

DON'T STOP YET!

Hart Armstrong

Don't stop yet, my Brother, my Sister,
Your work for the Lord is not done;
There's enemies yet to be conquered,
Before the last vict'ry is won.

The struggle is raging around us,
Some brother is calling to you;
Your prayer of compassion is needed,
There's plenty of work yet to do.

Each day as you travel earth's pathway,
Your life is a lesson to all;
They watch how you walk with the Saviour,
Obeying His Word and His Call.

The Lord has to you a task given,
A job which none other can do;
So bend down to lift up the burden,
The workers are always too few.

With patience and skill you must labor,
If you would a masterpiece make;
Each day you must toil to perfect it,
No matter how long it may take.

The time of the end is approaching,
The last task on earth will be done;
What joy when we rise up to meet Him!
We'll know that the vict'ry is won.

"Well done!" will Christ say to the faithful,
"Reward will be given to you!
The joy of your Lord is awaiting,
The life which forever is new!"

"DEATH"

Why comest thou in our midst, O death,
And takest those so dear?
Fain would we stay thy blighting breath
And keep our loved ones here.

How sad to gaze on features pale
And hands so cold — oh then
To call the names of those we love;
They answer not again.

But we must follow in their steps
And feel the same cold blight;
'Tis only through our Saviour King
There comes a glorious light.

He never called His sheep to go
But where He led the way;
As through the gates of death He went
To bright, eternal day.

So death has lost its terror
To children of the King.
O grave, where is thy victory?
O death, where is thy sting?

As on our way we daily go,
Through light, shade, calm or strife,
Oh, may we bear thy marks below
In conquered sin, and chastened life!

LANDES — Sarah Elizabeth, beloved daughter of Daryl and Rhonda (Switzer) Landes, was born Aug. 10, 1983, near Modesto, California. Following a short illness, her spirit took its flight unto our Lord, the evening of March 18, 1988, at the tender age of 4 years, 7 months, and 8 days.

Being small at birth, her early months required special care, endearing her to her family. Her quiet ways, sweet smile, and delight in singing the songs of Zion are precious to us. Her earthly treasures were her family and friends.

Besides her parents, she leaves behind Cara, Cassie, Troy, and Hannah, who share a deep love for their sister. Her family circle included grandparents, David and Sarah Lee Switzer, and Alva and Pauline Landes; and great-grandparents, Margaret Bowman, Charles and Pernia Switzer, Lester and Elsie Fisher, and Daniel and Rachel Landes. Only great-grandpa Orville Bowman preceded her in death. Many uncles, aunts, cousins and friends share our loss, yet, with us are rejoicing in her eternal gain.

Comforting words were given from Matt. 19:14, "Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven." Hymns 494, 455, and 375 were sung at the church. Burial was in the Wood Colony Cemetery. While the grave was being filled with the help of many young boys, hymns 370, 499, 428, and Jesus Loves Me were sung. Following closing remarks and prayer, Happy the Home, a favorite song of Sarah's was sung. Her short life has come to a close, leaving us with precious memories.

GISH — John W., eldest son of John T. and Lizzie (Cool) Gish, was born near Modesto, California on Nov. 18, 1903. He departed this life for an eternal one on March 28, 1988, at the age of 84 years, 4 months, and 10 days.

He spent his entire life in California, near Modesto, where he both began and ended his temporal life. Dad was a farmer, a father, and best of all, he loved the Lord and His Word. He enjoyed discussing the Holy Scriptures and was a faithful follower of them.

He was married to Dorothy Barbara Bowman on Sept. 5, 1926, and together they toiled and rejoiced and raised a family for over 62 years. They were baptized into the Old German Baptist Church on March 18, 1928, and their home became a frequent scene of good food and good fellowship. The Church they loved called them to the office of Deacon on Dec. 18, 1937, and he faithfully served in that capacity until his death.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Trussie and Lizzie; 2 sisters, Edith Blom, and Sara Woodbridge; 3 brothers, Ivan, Caleb, and Raymond; and by 1 great-grandchild, Caleb Gish.

His life will continue to have a profound influence on those of us who remain, namely his wife, Dorothy; 4 sons and their wives, Roger and Mary, Marvin and Joyce, Edward and Barbara, and Philip and Mary Ellen; 1 daughter, Donna and her husband, Dennis Wyatt; 3 sisters, Elva Daniels, Mary Hedgecock Beard, and Amy Kroeker; 15 grandchildren; 24 great-grandchildren; and a very large circle of relatives and friends, including his aged mother-in-law, Ethel Bowman.

Daddy was truly a family man. He loved his family and was devoted to them. Even when he was too sick to see his friends and Brethren, he was glad to see the family when some of them stopped by.

His life knew but little suffering and pain and his illness was blessedly brief. He will join the millions of saints in our eternal home.

The funeral was held in the Modesto church on Good Friday, April 1, and was attended by a large crowd of those who knew him. The services were conducted by three of his sons. Hymns 155, 69, and 451 were sung. Good Friday seemed like a fitting time to lay the body to rest in the Wood Colony Cemetery to await the resurrection morning. Brethren Ronnie Miller and Gordon Rumble officiated at the graveside services.

BECKNER — Martha Ann, daughter of Henry and Viola (Boots) Filbrun, was born March 18, 1904, near Westphalia, Kansas, and spent her life in Anderson Co. On Oct. 26, 1919, she was baptized into the Old German Baptist Church and remained faithful until death.

She was united in marriage with Floyd William Beckner on Nov. 23, 1927, and together they shared the joys and sorrows of life for over 60 years. To this union were born 2 children.

Preceding her in death, were her father and mother, and 1 grandson, Gerald Dean Eichman.

She and her husband were elected to the office of Deacon in 1936, where she willingly filled her office as long as health permitted.

During her illness, Mother called for the anointing which gave her so much comfort. She also received much joy and comfort when loved ones would sing hymns of Heaven and joys to come.

She was a very loving and caring wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. She enjoyed her grandchildren so much as she watched them grow to maturity and rejoiced as each one accepted Christ and was baptized into the Church. She leaves many precious memories to them. She surely touched each life who helped care for her in her last days.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, March 31, at 2:00 p.m., in the Cedar Creek meetinghouse, with Bro. Weldon Hirt officiating and home brethren assisting. HOLSINGER — Harry Eldon, son of Jay and Estella (Boyd) Holsinger, was born Nov. 1, 1918, in Gage Co., Nebraska.

On April 24, 1938, he accepted Christ as his Savior and was baptized according to God's Word. By so doing, he was received into the fellowship of the Old German Baptist Brethren Church. In this fellowship he grew in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ until March 30, 1988, when he suffered a massive stroke. He lay unresponsive, but surrounded by much love and care by family and friends for eleven days. On the 12th day, April 10, very early in the morning, his spirit took its flight back to God who gave it to the world, 69 years, 5 months, and 9 days earlier.

On July 6, 1940, he was united in marriage to Effie Root. The Lord blessed them with 3 sons who cherish the heritage that he left them.

Daddy and Mother lived in various parts of the brotherhood. First in central Indiana, near the towns of Wabash and Rossville, then after five years, they moved to Modesto, California. Nine years later they moved to Ohio, near New Carlisle. Twenty-four years later, having lived in the Tipp City and Troy areas of Ohio, too, they moved back to California, this time to Ripon. At the time of his passing, they lived in the town of Riverbank.

Daddy was a builder. He built several houses in his lifetime, but more important were the relationships that he built with his associates and with the people he met. Many are the souls who became endeared to him.

Left to anticipate a glad reunion someday with him in Glory, are his wife of almost 48 years; 3 sons, Larry and his wife, Carolyn, Allen and his wife, Bernadine, and Harlan and his wife, Marilyn; a sister-in-law, Louise Root, who has stayed in their home for 35 years; 10 grandchildren; 1 great-grandchild; 3 brothers and 3 sisters, David, Otho, Lloyd, Mary Flory, Alice Kline, and Ruth Blocher; and many other relatives and friends.

Preceding him in death were his parents; 1 brother, Elmer; and 1 grandson, Mark.

Funeral services were held April 13, at 3:00 p.m., in the Olive Grove meetinghouse by the home brethren. The text was taken from Ps. 103:15,16, and James 4:14, comparing man's lifespan to grass that withereth, flowers that fade, and vapour that vanisheth. Hymns 526, 393, and 498 were used. Interment was made at the Wood Colony Cemetery, Modesto. Elder L. D. Wolf shared a few comforting thoughts there. Hymns 522, 510, 455, and 363 were used while the grave was being filled.

LAIR — Naomi V., daughter of Jerome Albert and Emma D. (Neher) Beeghley, was born Jan. 19, 1908, in Montgomery Co., Ohio. There she lived until she was united in marriage with Edward Allen Lair of Clermont Co., Ohio, on Nov. 8, 1931.

This union was blessed with 1 daughter and 3 sons. A much loved foster daughter came to share their home at the age of 9 years.

They lived in Miami and Champaign Counties until March 1946, at which time they purchased a farm in Clark Co., Ohio, near New Carlisle. This home remained her residence until Dad passed away on May 31, 1975. Shortly thereafter Mother retired to the smaller house on the farm, with the foster daughter. This remained her home until her death.

Although Mother had an enlarged heart, she enjoyed fairly good health until the last six months. She was hospitalized on April 19, with edema which became progressively worse. Mother departed this life, to meet her Maker at 1:25 p.m., April 28, 1988, at the age of 80 years, 3 months, and 9 days. "And if by reason of strength they be fourscore years" (Ps. 90:10).

Her father preceded her in death in Dec., 1909, shortly before her second birthday; her mother, in July 1945; her stepfather, Edwin Hyre, in 1950; an infant daughter, Lureda Mae, died in 1935, at the age of 7 days; and a sister, Mrs. Elmer (Iona) Harer, in 1960.

She is survived by the foster daughter, Margaret (Spence) and her husband, Marvin Austin; 3 sons and their wives, Irvin and Bonnie, Marvin and Mary Jane, and Kenneth and Linda; 3 granddaughters, Debbie Lair, Lori Lair, and Cara Lair; 4 grandsons, Rob Lair, Mike Lair, Curt Lair, and Bobby Lair; a half sister, Mrs. Gilbert (Geneva Hyre) Grover; 1 stepbrother, Richard Hyre; 1 stepsister, Sylvia Wetzel; and many dear relatives, friends and neighbors.

Mother enjoyed her family, especially the grandchildren, and spent many hours in caring for her family and their needs. She also enjoyed crocheting and caring for her flowers and garden.

Hymn 455 and reading of the 90th Psalm was used in opening, with Scriptures from John 14:1-6, 2 Cor. 5:1-6 and 1 Cor. 15:42-52 for the message. The closing hymn was 384, with number 403 being sung at the graveside.

SISTER, THOU WAST MILD AND LOVELY

Sister, thou was mild and lovely,
Gentle as the summer breeze;
Pleasant as the air of ev'ning,
When it floats among the trees.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber —
Peaceful in the grave so low;
Thou no more wilt join our number,
Thou no more our songs shalt know.

Dearest sister, thou hast left us;
Here thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.

THE PASSING OF OLD SOLDIERS

It is a sobering thought —
The passing of the "old,"
Who labored long through summer's heat
And winter's bitter cold.

They heard their Captain's call
Like morning bugler's peal;
And with His army faced the foe —
Its fiery darts to feel.

Consoling though to me . . .
Their battles now are fought,
And their reward is waiting them
For serving whom they ought.

And then I stop and think,
Can I bear up as they . . .
And stay a soldier for so long
And walk His narrow way?

I fear lest I will sleep,
Nor have my armor on,
And then alone to face the foe —
His Holy Spirit gone.

Then may we watch and pray,
Wear shield and spear and bow;
And with His Christian soldiers march
And bravely face the foe.

And as the time draws near,
More vivid is the view
Of that great prize beyond the skies —
For soldiers old and true.

MOHLER — Miriam Amy, daughter of John B. and Edna (Denlinger) Wade, was born near West Milton, in Miami Co., Ohio, on May 1, 1925. As a young adult, she came to California with others for a visit. During her stay, she came under conviction of her need for a Savior and committed her soul to the Lord Jesus Christ for safekeeping. This commitment was sealed by her testimony of requesting and receiving water baptism on Jan. 9, 1944, at the Modesto district of the Old German Baptist Church, performed by Bro. Hubert Rumble. Upon her confession of faith, she received the gift of God's Spirit who led her through the remainder of her life.

On Dec. 12, 1945, she was united in marriage with Daniel Weston Mohler, sharing the joys and disappointments of life together for over 42 years. This happy union was blessed with 4 loving children with whom they shared a close family life. Miriam instilled her love for singing in her children and their home often rang with songs of praise. They gained much joy in opening their home in Christian hospitality and fellowship.

On April 10, 1964, they were called to the Ministry at the Olive Grove district of the Old German Baptist Church near Ripon, California, where they faithfully served in this labor of love until her death. She was a great source of strength to her husband, being a fruitful example of the believer.

They attended the Annual Meeting at North Manchester, Indiana, and were on their way to Ohio to visit relatives when she went to be with her Lord following an automobile accident at Deerfield, Indiana, on May 25, 1988, at the age of 63 years and 24 days.

She is survived by her devoted companion; 2 daughters and sons-in-law, Suzanne and Durand Overholtzer, Sharon Burrage, Dwayne Overholtzer; 2 sons and their wives, Thomas and Laurie, and John and Barb; her mother; 3 sisters, Mrs. Don (Eileen) Roth, Mrs. Paul (Glenna Mae) Austin, and Mrs. Lloyd (Donna) Bowser; 1 brother, Lowell Wade; 12 grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her father in 1983.

One granddaughter, Marisa Overholtzer, sustained injuries in the same accident as Grandma and went to meet her in the presence of the Lord on May 26.

We will be ever grateful for the testimony of the Lord Jesus in Mother's life. Her uplifting smile and words of encouragement have cheered so many along life's way. Although we shall greatly miss her wise counsel and warm, sharing ways, the influence of her life, which always abounded in the work of the Lord, shall linger with us eternally.

Services were held on May 27, at 1:00 p.m., in the Jackson Funeral Home, Pleasant Hill, Ohio, with Elder Lowell Garber and Bro. Tracy Wolfe officiating. Hymns used were 484 and 485. Following, a viewing was held until the late evening, with a large response of loved ones.

The remains were flown to California, and again many dear relatives and friends came to the viewing on Sunday, May 29, at the Salas Brothers Funeral Chapel, Modesto.

Nearly 1,000 people attended the funeral service on Monday, May 30, at 9:30 a.m., in the Modesto district church. Bro. Tracy Wolfe opened and Elder Clifford Barnhart had the message. The text was from Rom. 14:7-9, and Prov. 31:30. Hymns used were 484 and 526. Bro. Bruce Hoblit officiated at the graveside service in the Wood Colony Cemetery. SIMMONS — Mark Henry, son of James P. and Mary A. (Hangen) Simmons, was born Jan. 28, 1925, on a farm in Montgomery Co., Ohio, where he and his 3 brothers and 4 sisters learned to care and share with each other during his formative years.

On March 17, 1945, while Mark was in the service, he married his neighborhood sweetheart, Lois E. Flory, at Bastrop, Texas. This union was soon blessed with a son, R. Travis, and 2 daughters, Juanita Kay and Mary Elizabeth.

After returning from service, he and his bride set up housekeeping near Pyrmont, Ohio, and followed the occupation of farming.

Feeling the need of more fully confirming his peace with God, in 1950 he and his companion were baptized into the fellowship of the Old German Baptist Church. They moved into the Prices Creek district in 1956, where they continued to follow the occupation of farming until 1967, when he chose trucking as a means of their livelihood.

This past winter, in anticipation of enjoying the occupation that he loved in his retirement years, he bought a small farm tractor which gave him much joy.

Mark's life was suddenly snuffed out by a heart attack as he stood by his North American truck. He was pronounced dead at Sharon, Connecticut, on May 26, 1988, making his sojourn on earth 63 years, 3 months, and 28 days. His outgoing personality endeared him to many.

Left to mourn his passing are his companion, Sister Lois; his 3 children, R. Travis and companion, Linda, Sister Juanita Kay Brumbaugh and husband, Allen, Sister Mary Elizabeth Brunk and husband, Bro. Robert; 1 brother, Robert; 3 sisters, Bernice Tamplin, Beulah Valentine, and Betty Carlton; 10 grandchildren; 2 great-grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews and friends.

On Tuesday morning we gathered for a short service at Bussard-Barnes Mortuary at Eldorado, Ohio. The body was then taken to Arlington Cemetery, Brookville, Ohio, where a memorial service was held at 2:00 p.m. Dale Deaton and the home brethren gave words of warning and comfort. A list of hymns found in Mark's hymn book were used: 393 and 450 at the funeral parlor, and 499 and 430 at the cemetery. As the family filled the grave, we sang Precious Memories, 483, 498, 384 and as a parting hymn, Jesus Loves Me, a hymn the grandchildren love so well.

So another, that had brightened our lives, has left for eternity's shore.

Iva moved to her home at Timbercrest in March, 1968. She spent many cheerful and happy hours making little gifts to give to the children who came with their parents to visit with her. FERGUSON — Horace E., son of Horace Ellis (Harry) and Mary (Shoup) Ferguson, oldest of their family of 18 children, was born March 15, 1906, in Greene Co., Ohio. He left us to be with his Lord on Sunday evening, June 12, 1988, at the age of 82, from Greene Memorial Hospital, Xenia, following an illness of several months.

He and Frances Ginn were united in marriage March 19, 1927. Their life together was blessed with 1 daughter.

Horace enjoyed his life on the farm, and the various farm organizations with which he was affiliated. His outgoing personality and a good sense of humor made his work with young people a special joy to him and to them.

In Sept., 1976, he and Frances were received by baptism into the Old German Baptist Church in the Bear Creek district, where they were active and helpful as long as their health permitted, and were much loved and appreciated.

During past illnesses, he asked for and received the anointing service for his strength and comfort. As in Job 5:26, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season," so is it with Bro. Horace.

Along with the loss his family will feel, he will be missed at the little church he loved to attend and by the congregation with whom he enjoyed fellowship, but for he and his "Francie," the "better time ahead" has come.

Funeral services were conducted on Wednesday, June 15, by the undersigned, assisted by Elder Everett Fullmer. The text used was John 11:28, along with hymns 403 and 455. Burial service at Jamestown Cemetery was conducted by Elder Kenneth Miller.

Father looked in that distance, no doubt
oft before,
Running now with compassion, he kissed
him once more.
It seems that adversity has a way of revealing
The lack of humility — makes an unworthy
feeling.

Now this son so it seemed, was dead and was lost,
And had given his life at a very high cost,
Again he's alive, he was lost, now he's found,
So it is with us all, if for heaven we're bound.

HAND-IN-HAND
Bill Carr

I have a friend who always hears
Each pray'r that I may pray,
And walks in silence with me
Each step along life's way.

He never fails to comfort me
When things don't turn out right,
And I can always count on Him
In day, or darkest night.

His hand is always there in mine
To guide me lest I stray,
To pick me up if I should fall,
And help me find my way.

He quiets every aching
Every sorrow in my breast,
He takes each fear and hurt away
And tells me what is best.

And every day that dawns for me
Is just the way He planned,
Down life's path together
With Jesus, Hand-in-Hand.

MEDITATIONS
Ruth Garber

In meditating on the past
We see God's wondrous ways;
If we would do the planning
We would have all joyous days.

God sends us cares and crosses
To help us better know,
If we never had a care
The soul would never grow.

When we do our meditating
Let us never selfish be;
But always pray for others
Who may have more cares than we.

Charity, the greatest blessing,
Makes believers all as one;
Helps the "Bride of Christ" prepare
To hear the words, "Well Done."

AT CLOSE OF DAY

Sometimes when evening sun sinks low,
And shadows steal in on tip-toe;
When fire-flies blink their beacon lights,
And swallows slake their appetites;

Sometimes when the first star I see,
And bird songs cease their melody;
When zephyrs whisper in the pines,
And night falls with its thousand signs,

It's then, when work is laid aside,
I reminisce at eventide,
And love to sit and meditate
On the day's blessings, small and great.

The day is not without its care,
But the assurance, God is there
To give me strength in every loss,
Helps lift the weight of many a cross.

My feet are oft inclined to slip,
Save for the Spirit's fellowship;
He shuts my lips and makes them dumb
When unkind words are on my tongue.

Sometimes I sin against my Lord,
Trespass upon His sacred Word;
But when He hears my anguished cry,
I know forgiving grace is nigh.

And when I count blessings like this,
And think on promised future bliss,
I can but praise Him and exclaim,
"My God is good, Great is His name."

Some eventide I'll close my day,
And in the afterglow I pray:
A soul may meditate and find
This Great God, Savior of mankind.

— Willard Yoder, Brookville, Ohio

SAFELY HOME

I am home in Heaven dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over.
Every restless tossing passed.
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.
Did you wonder how I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh, but Jesus love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade,
And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread,
And with Jesus' arm to lean on
Could I have one doubt to dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still.
Try to look beyond life's shadows;
Pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand.
Do it now while life remaineth,
You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed
He will gently call you home.
Oh, the rapture of that meeting!
Oh, the joy to see you come

MARSHALL — Mary Catherine, daughter of Samuel A. and Mary Francis (Swartz) Rodeffer, was born May 9, 1905, at the Rodeffer home on Lexington Road near Eaton, Ohio. She was called home from this life on the evening of Aug. 12, 1988, at the age of 83 years, 3 months, and 3 days.

At about the age of nine years, she confessed the Lord Jesus as her Saviour and was baptized into the fellowship of the Church of the Brethren by Elder J. Fletcher Deaton. She attended services at the Wheatville and Beech Grove church houses, and when Upper Twin Church of the Brethren felt the need for a congregational presence in the town of Eaton, she became a charter member at that place in 1926.

On Jan. 25, 1930, she was united in marriage with Paul J. Marshall, who preceded her in death in Aug., 1956. Four brothers and 1 sister also preceded her in death. They are John C., Lawrence F., Myers R., Chelsea S., and sister Fern, who died in infancy.

Mary was deeply devoted to her church, serving as Annual Conference delegate in 1962 (Ocean Grove, N.J.). She also served as a delegate to District Meeting and as a Sunday School teacher to the Primary and Junior children.

As a mother, she was kind and loving and giving in sacrifice for her children, especially in meeting John's needs as he lived and worked on the home farm with her after her husband's death.

She continued at the home place as long as she was able, thereafter staying with her son, Paul, for awhile, and then spending the last 2 years of her life at Heartland Care Center.

She received comfort in seeing her children and grandchildren make their own commitments to the Lord.

She is survived by 2 sons, Paul H., and John S.; 2 sisters, Dorothy Rexrode, and Martha Driver; 5 grandsons, and 1 granddaughter.

Funeral services were held 10:30 a.m., Aug. 16, by Pastor Ellis G. Guthrie and Dean Garrett, at the Eaton Church of the Brethren. Burial was at Mound Hill Cemetery, there to await the resurrection morn.

Dean Garrett

AUKERMAN — Forest T., was born on Feb. 13, 1902, near Palestine, Ohio, son of Joshua and Vernah Ethel (Frantz) Aukerman. In 1906, the family moved to Medway, Ohio, and Forest lived on the same farm for 41 years. His young mother passed away in 1916. Forest and his father spent the winter of 1920-21 at Whittier, California, where his father was married to Etta Meador.

Forest was married on Oct. 18, 1923, to Carrie Denlinger, daughter of Andrew and Bertha Denlinger of Trotwood, Ohio. They lived on the family potato farm, where they experienced the joys and sorrows of life.

To this union were born 4 children, Harold, Bonnie, Betty, and Barbara. On Sept. 27, 1929, little Harold, age 4, was accidentally killed when he fell from a potato wagon.

Realizing true happiness was only by living for the Lord, Forest and Carrie accepted Him, and were baptized in Aug., 1929, into the Old German Baptist Church.

In 1947, the Aukerman family moved to Modesto, California, and Forest continued in farming, mainly rice.

Carrie passed away suddenly on Nov. 10, 1965. Forest was married to Treva (Bowser) Filbrun on April 29, 1967, and they lived at Modesto.

For the past 8 years, Forest experienced poor health, but he still attended church services whenever he could and enjoyed visiting with his beloved family and friends.

He entered Memorial Hospital, Modesto, on Aug. 6, and asked for the anointing on Aug. 8, which gave him much comfort. Quietly, just as he had lived his gentle and kind life, he went to be with his Lord early in the morning of Aug. 13, 1988, at the age of 86 years and 6 months.

Lovingly, he will be remembered by his wife, Treva; 3 daughters, Bonnie Bauman, Betty King, and Barbara Grover; 3 stepchildren, Bonnie June Shoup, Ronald Filbrun, and Bruce Filbrun; 15 grandchildren; 39 great-grandchildren; 11 stepgrandchildren; 14 stepgreat-grandchildren; 1 aunt, Dora Frantz; cousins; and many friends.

He was preceded in death by his father in 1970, and his stepmother in 1974.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." To live for Jesus, redeemed by his blood, assures our reigning with Him.

Funeral services were held on Monday, Aug. 15, at 2:00 p.m., in the Modesto district church. Elder Aaron Miller opened, Bro. Gordon Rumble had the message, and Elder Roger Gish had the graveside service. Hymns 455 and 483 were used at the church, 494 and others during the filling of the grave in the Wood Colony Cemetery.

OBITUARIES

METZGER — Flora Hazel, daughter of Simon and Laura (Coning) Boocher, was born Aug. 26, 1900, in Wabash Co., Indiana. Shortly after breakfast on Aug. 17, 1988, her spirit quietly and peacefully departed and went back to God, who had originally given it, her life's pilgrimage being 87 years, 11 months, and 21 days.

The first 18 years of her life were spent in a home where she was nourished both in body and spirit. As she began to mature, her thoughts began to be focused on a companion for life. She found love, sharing, and caring in a young man, Ralph Metzger. Their friendship developed into a marriage on Oct. 25, 1919. Their life together of almost 69 years was very typical. There were 2 children born to this family, Arden, and Mrs. Loren (Helen) Miller. This young family had some hardships and sorrows, but the joys that they experienced helped them to appreciate their life together. Also, later in life little William Arden (Billy) Coning came to live with them for several years, which was a highlight in their life.

Flora recognized a missing factor in her life. In Aug., 1920, she was received into The Old German Baptist Church by baptism, to which she remained faithful until life's end. She and her husband were janitors of the church for a number of years, a work they thoroughly enjoyed.

She is survived by her loving and caring companion; their 2 children; and 2 brothers, Noah, and Clark. The fond memories of a loving grandma will be remembered by 3 grandchildren; 4 great-grandchildren; 7 stepgrandchildren; and 17 stepgreat-grandchildren; and other relatives and friends.

Preceding her in death were her parents; 1 half brother; 2 half sisters; and 2 full sisters.

In her productive years she enjoyed her garden, flowers, and her chickens, but in later years those interests began to fade. She found that she no longer had the strength for some of those activities and eventually had to forget them all. She developed a heart problem, and in keeping with her faith called for the anointing service, which was administered by the Brethren. They moved to Timbercrest Church of the Brethren Home in Dec., 1984, where they resided at the time of her passing. Flora consistently commended the home for their wonderful care and assistance.

This brings to a close the life of a Mother in Israel.

On Friday morning, Aug. 19, a short service was held at the mortuary with the reading of Psalm 90, and prayer. A funeral was conducted in the North Manchester church at 10:30 a.m., for the family and a group of sympathizing relatives and friends. The service was opened by the undersigned and concluded with a message of comfort, consolation, and encouragement by Elder Clement Skiles. The text used was John 16:22, with reference also being made to Mother, Home, and Heaven. The service was closed with the reading of a poem, Goodnight Dear Wife, and prayer. The committal service, which consisted of reading Psalm 23, and an appropriate prayer was held in the church cemetery.

MILLER — Sara Lou, infant daughter of Bro. David and Sister Sara (Cook) Miller, was born and died early Sunday morning, Aug. 21, 1988.

Having shared our joyous expectations, she will be sorely missd by her grandparents, Bro. Eli and Sister Edna Miller, and Elder Harry and Sister Laura Cook; great-grandparents, Albert Lehman, Bro. Clarence and Sister Beulah Cook, Bro. Charles and Sister Evelyn Hollinger; great-great-grandmothers, Ruth Hollinger and Sister Ruth Long; aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.

Graveside services were held at Pleasant Valley Cemetery near Pendleton, Indiana, on Aug. 23, at 5:00 p.m., by Elder Herman Shuman. We received comfort from the text in John 14:1, Prov. 14:26, Ps. 139:10-18,

Rom. 8:28, and hymns 369 and 445.

May God be praised for the precious time with little Sara and the invaluable experience which we pray will strengthen and help us to remain faithful so that we may someday be where she is.

The Parents

JARBOE — Kathryn Margaret, one of 7 children of Henry and Savilla (Long) Wolf, was born at Quinter, Kansas, on July 31, 1901. She grew to womanhood on a farm near there, attending a country school, and taught in one for a short time.

She was united in marriage with Samuel Jarboe on June 5, 1920. Their life together spanned a little more than 65 years. They lived at Quinter, until 1947, when the family moved to Modesto, California. Their married son, Russell, stayed in Kansas on the family farm.

Their home was blessed with 5 children; Warren, Russell, Eileen Barton, Leola Landes, and Wayne. Two children, Warren and Eileen, and 1 grandchild, Suzanne Jarboe, preceded Mother to the better place. Daddy and Mother accepted the Lord and were baptized into the Old German Baptist Church in Sept. 1928. She faithfully attended services as long as health permitted, and received the blessings of the anointing service 8 days before her passing.

Mother's life calls to mind the woman in Prov. 31. She was willing and able to work with her husband to provide the necessary things for her family. Their early married years were spent farming in Kansas during the dust bowl years, and into better times. After moving to California, she worked at various things, including working with Sam in planning and building homes.

She never tired of gardening and giving — to family, friends, and those in need. For over 3 years she lived at English Oaks and still demonstrated a desire to help those around her, never complaining, endearing herself to many there.

Her children and grandchildren will remember, with gratitude to the Lord, her love and concern for them, and for the many times she arranged for us to meet, working, eating, singing, and playing together, often including others.

We will especially remember her generous spirit, and that she believed one of the purposes of life was to help others.

Mother passed peacefully from this life to be with the Lord on Tuesday, Aug. 23, 1988, at the age of 87 years and 23 days. She is survived by 2 sons, Russell and companion, Velvyn, Wayne and companion, Marcele; 1 daughter, Leola Landes and companion, Don; a son-in-law, Earl Barton; a daughter-in-law, Mary Jane Jarboe; 18 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; 3 sisters, Edith Baker, Edna Boone, and Lola Miller; and many nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Aug. 25, at 2:30 p.m., in the Modesto church. Bro. Gordon Rumble opened, Bro. Edward Gish had the message, and Elder Aaron Miller had the graveside service. Hymns 103 and 451 were used at the church, 123 and What a Day That Will Be, at the burial. She was laid to rest beside her husband in the Wood Colony Cemetery.

The Family

GISH — Vida Pearl, daughter of David W. and Minnie Alice (Woodbridge) Boyd, was born on May 3, 1897, near Virginia, in Gage Co., Nebraska, where she spent her youth. The family moved to California in 1913, returning to Nebraska in 1915.

At the Center View district of the Old German Baptist Church in Nebraska, Vida and 2 of her cousins, Hiva Grover and Belle Kessler, were baptized on Oct. 5, 1915, by Elder Henry Brubaker.

In 1919, the family again returned to Modesto. On Dec. 4, 1924, she and Albert W. Gish were united in marriage by Elder Simeon Frantz.

For 41 years, they resided on a farm close to Salida, where they lived an active farming life and raised their 3 children. Later, they moved to a home on Dakota Avenue, where she lived until 1984, when her health began to fail. She spent her sunset years at the home of her son, David. Twice during illnesses, she called for the anointing.

After a stroke on July 3, 1988, her health declined, and she spent her last weeks in the English Oaks Convalescent Hospital, Modesto, where she passed away on Aug. 31, 1988, at the age of 91 years, 3 months, and 28 days.

Dear to her heart was her natural family, having a love and concern for all of them. Her quiet and meek spirit will be a special memory to all who knew her. Also very precious to her were her brothers and sisters in the Lord, and until her health failed, she was at her place in church services.

She was preceded in death by her husband on July 8, 1972; her father in 1936, her mother in 1964; 1 brother, Harley J. Boyd; and 2 grandchildren, Aaron and Leah Gish.

This dear Mother will be remembered by her children, Sister Elnora and her husband, LaVerne Sawyer, Sister Virginia and her husband, Bro. Lawrence Peters, and Bro. David W. Gish, and his wife, Sister Velma; her beloved 12 grandchildren; 30 great-grandchildren; and 1 great-great-grandchild; nieces, nephews, and cousins.

A life well lived for the Lord now has her victory with Him.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Sept. 3, at 9:00 a.m., in the West Modesto church. Elder Daniel Stamy opened and Elder Levi Bowman had the message. Hymns used were 384 and 455. Elder Norman Boyd officiated at the graveside service. Let me find beauty in all things.
Nor be too blind to see
The goodness in my fellowman.
That he would find in me.

Grant that my ears remain attuned
To hear the smallest sigh,
And may I lend a gentle touch
To those less sure than I.
Let me remember lessons learned,
And profit from the past,
And may I build a bridge of dreams,
That shall forever last.

Let me rejoice in simple things
I need no wealth to buy;
The scent of pine upon the wind,
A burnished copper sky.
Scarlet roses on the fence,
Sunrise through the trees,
Lord, grant that I may not outgrow
Affinity with these.

Give me a grateful heart, Lord,
Let me be satisfied
When days are less than sunny
And plans lie at low tide.
For life's a sweet adventure,
That leads to who knows where,
And love was made for sharing,
And hearts were made to care.

THE ANSWER

I thanked God in the evening
When the day was past and gone,
And I praised Him for His Presence
Guiding me from early dawn.

Many were the cares and problems
There arose unseen to meet,
But His Presence was my pilot
Calmly sailing o'er the deep.

So I lay aside earth's problems
Now the shades of evening fall,
Thus in peace and faith to slumber
With His Presence over all.

LIFE'S COMPENSATIONS

Every sunset has a sunrise,
Dawn awakes when night is through,
Summer succeeds dreary winter,
Storm clouds flee, then skies are blue.

Joy replaces tears of sorrow,
Comfort seeks to allay grief,
Healing mends the heart that's broken,
Rest gives weary souls relief.

Harvest crowns a faithful sowing,
Increase is the fruit of toil,
Goals reward the persevering,
Peace abides after turmoil.

So life has its compensations —
Not all joy and not all tears;
Even death, once "King of Terrors"
Is no more what it appears.

Since our Savior led death captive,
It is now an open door
Into greater, grander vistas
Than our souls could know before.

Now the spirit soars in rapture,
Released from this earthly clod;
Knowing "sunset has its sunrise"
For lives hid with Christ in God.

— Willard Yoder, Brookville, Ohio

WE ARE NOT ALONE

Robert E. Mortensen

How good it is to realize that God will undertake
For all who burdened, cry to Him, "Help me for Jesus' sake."
For through His Son He has for all not only sins released,
But grace for every trial of life; He keeps the soul in peace.

Sometimes when we implore the Lord to meet some special need,
It seems as if His ear is deaf, no matter how we plead.
But up above the leaden skies, He watches o'er His own,
He sees our tear-drops, hears our cry. No, we are not alone!

For every trial, care, and cross, He giveth us more grace,
And every storm-sky has its rift that shows His loving face.
Many are the afflictions of the righteous, it is true,
But He delivers, bless His name, He sees His children through.

OBITUARIES

FLORY — Iva Myrtle, daughter of Christian and Emeline (Mishler) Miller, was born April 22, 1895, in Allen Co., Ohio, and lived in this vicinity all of her life.

For over two years, since the passing of her companion on July 15, 1986, she had been cared for in the homes of her 4 children, staying a month at a time with each family. She had been nearly bedfast for some time, but was pleasant to be around and contented with her lot. On occasion, until recent weeks, she would still sing parts of hymns that she had known from her youth.

However, on the morning of Sept. 22, 1988, in the home of the younger daughter and her companion, she peacefully answered the call of her Master at the age of 93 years, and 5 months.

On Dec. 23, 1914, she was united in marriage with Thomas H. Flory of near Covington, Ohio, and soon thereafter moved to a farm near Elida, Ohio, where they spent many years together and where the family of 2 sons and 2 daughters were born and reared.

They spent over 71 years together until his passing away, having lived later years in a home only about a mile from the home place.

Early in life she felt the need of a Saviour and accordingly was baptized into the fellowship of the Old German Baptist Brethren Church. She was a dutiful companion and Mother, faithfully helping her companion while in the office of Deacon, having been placed there in April, 1930, and then in April, 1944, into the office of the Ministry. As children, we can well remember the labor of her hands, her habitual singing and her concern for our needs, both temporal and spiritual. Having been, on different occasions, seriously close to the valley of the shadow of death, she called for the Elders of the Church, and was anointed with oil which gave her consolation and strength to live to this ripe old age.

Left to mourn her passing are 2 sons, Bro. Lester and his companion, Sister Velma, Bro. Howard and his companion, Sister Mary Jane; 2 daughters, Sister Emma Montgomery and her companion, Bro. Cabel, Sister Betty Fisher and her companion, Bro. Dale; 11 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren; and 1 sister, Sister Naomi Brovont.

Preceding her in death were 1 brother, Bro. Frank Miller; and 2 sisters, Sister Alta Peters, and Sister Alice Denlinger.

She will be sadly missed by her family, friends, church, and community, but we trust she will be welcomed "Home" on the Celestial Shore to join the chorus of angelic hosts.

Funeral services were held on Sunday, Sept. 25, at 1:00 p.m., in the Chiles-Laman Funeral Home with Elder Raymond Garber officiating, and at 2:00 p.m., at the Ash Grove meetinghouse with Elder Carl Bowman conducting the service assisted by Bro. Eugene Miller. Scripture readings were from Psalm 116 and John 11:2,9,13-15. Among the hymns used were 494, 455, 460, and 403. Interment was in the Ash Grove Cemetery with Bro. Alvin King officiating. May our loss be Mother's eternal gain.

The Family

MILLER — Elder Walter R., son of Hiram Benjamin and Myrtle (Shellabarger) Miller, was born July 16, 1909, in Darke Co., Ohio, where he spent his entire life. His life's occupation was farming. Experiencing declining health for the past several years, his spirit took its flight at the dawning of the day on Oct. 4, 1988, at Gade's Nursing Home, Greenville, Ohio, making his sojourn here 79 years, 2 months, and 17 days.

He was united in marriage with Edna Mae Davis on Jan. 27, 1933, and they spent nearly 56 years together. This union was blessed with 7 children.

Feeling the need of a Savior, he with his companion were baptized into the Old German Baptist Church in April, 1933, to which he remained faithful until death. On March 26, 1946, he was called to the Ministry and on Dec. 3, 1955, ordained to the Eldership. On July 17, 1988, he called for and received the anointing which gave him much comfort.

He was preceded in death by his parents; 1 brother, Forrest; 2 sisters, Edna Mae, and Naomi Roth; and 1 grandchild.

He is survived by his companion; the children, Melvin, David, Kenneth, Duane, Joan Flora, Gerald, and Robert; a sister, Anna Mae Ogle; a brother-in-law, Howard Roth; 40 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; and many other relatives and friends.

Daddy loved and enjoyed his relationship with his family and the fellowship in the church. Although we will greatly miss him, we feel our loss is his eternal gain.

Funeral services were conducted at 9:30 a.m., at the funeral home and at 10:30 a.m., at the Palestine meetinghouse by the home brethren. Psalm 23 was read at the funeral home with Revelation 21:1-8 being used as a text at the church. Hymns used were 401, 260, 221, and 389, with 494 being used at the cemetery. Burial was made in the church cemetery.

The angels sang hallelujah with joy
For Mary had borne a beautiful boy.
He was to be the King of all kings;
Oh! what great joy these tidings did bring.

Even though Satan tempted Him sore,
Jesus told him to say no more.
Then He suffered — was nailed to a cross
To atone for sin and redeem the lost.

— Heidi Long, Covington, Ohio

IN THINE OWN HEART

Though Christ a thousand times
In Bethlehem be born,
If He's not born in thee
Thy soul is still forlorn.
The cross on Golgotha
Will never save thy soul,
The cross in thine own heart
Alone can make thee whole.

SOME DAY

My soul, wait thou only upon God;
For my expectation is from him.
Trust in him at all times, ye people;
Pour out your heart before him. (Ps. 62:5,8)

"Some day," we say, and turn our eyes
Toward the fair hills of Paradise.

Some day, some time, a sweet, new rest
Shall blossom, flower-like, in each breast.

Some time, some day, our eyes shall see
The faces kept in memory.

Some day their hands shall clasp our hands
Just over in the morning lands.

Some day our ears shall hear the song
Of triumph over sin and wrong.

Some day, some time, but oh! not yet;
But we will wait and not forget

That some day all these things shall be,
And rest be given to you and me.

So wait, my friends, though years move slow,
The happy time will come, we know.

At the age of 12, she was taken into the home of Bro. David and Sister Dorothy Benedict who provided for her as one of their own children.

She was tenderly cared for at home by her foster mother and others until she was released from her sufferings Oct. 19, 1988, at the age of 61 years, 4 months, and 7 days.

She is survived by her foster mother, Sister Dorothy Benedict; 5 sisters; 2 brothers; and a foster brother, Marlin D. Benedict.

PERKINS — Mildred, was born on Aug. 20, 1896, in Adamsville, Michigan, daughter of Dr. Henry E. and Lucy Jane (Butler) Kinyon. When she was 3 years old, the family moved to Fullerton, Nebraska, then in 1910, they moved to San Diego, California, and on to Empire, California in 1914, where Mildred's father owned a drug store as well as practiced medicine.

Mildred was married on July 23, 1916, to Cecil Leland Perkins, and they made their home in Modesto, where Cecil worked in the post office for many years.

In the fall of 1916, she started at the Salida Grammer School in Salida, where she taught for 45 years, retiring in 1961. It is estimated that Mildred nurtured and taught at least 2,000 children during her years of teaching, touching young lives in so many endearing ways. Each pupil could give testimony of the loyalty of this beloved teacher. Mildred also made a significant contribution to the entire community of Salida, and in 1985, a new school was dedicated and named in her honor.

She desired to know about other cultures and peoples, and since 1928, took many trips overseas during the summer months and after her retirement. She also had visited all of the 50 states of the United States and every province in Canada.

Mildred had a deep appreciation for the spiritual needs in her life. She fully enjoyed church services and fellowship. Confessing Jesus Christ as her Savior, she was baptized on Feb. 8, 1985, and became a member of the Old German Baptist Church.

Her last years were spent at the English Oaks Convalescent Hospital, Modesto, where she passed away on Oct. 26, 1988, at the age of 92 years, 2 months, and 6 days.

HICKS — Lester Burnett, fifth of six sons of Elder Mark and Lucy (Wells) Hicks Brubaker, was born March 6, 1893, near Salem, Virginia. As a young man of sixteen, he accepted Christ as his Savior and was baptized 79 years ago on Oct. 17, 1909, into the Old German Baptist Church, henceforth, living a sincere, dedicated life.

At the age of 19 years, he left his home state and came to Ohio, settling in the Wolf Creek district.

It was there he met and was united in marriage with Sister Martha Lucretia Miller on Feb. 7, 1915. To this union were born 2 daughters, Mrs. Bruno (Mabel) Denlinger, and Mrs. Carl (Mildred) Filbrun, making a small loving family. After sharing 55 years of joys and sorrows, Mother preceded Dad in death on March 25, 1968.

Dad lived a busy, energetic life in the farming occupation until he retired, always willing to help others, but never wanting to depend on others for his own needs.

On Feb. 6, 1971, he was united in marriage with Nellie (Leedy) Denlinger. In the fall of the same year, they moved from the farm to their present location near Troy, Ohio, where they enjoyed 17 years of happiness. In his declining health the last few years, he requested the anointing and received much comfort and strength. Dad passed away peacefully in his home on Nov. 1, 1988, at the age of 95 years, 7 months, and 26 days.

His daughter, Mabel, preceded him in death on July 4, 1987.

Dad was an inspiration and a living example to all those about him. May we all strive to be with him in glory. We sorrow not as those without hope, but we feel that our loss is his eternal gain.

Services were conducted Friday, Nov. 4, at the Jackson Funeral Home in Pleasant Hill, and concluded at the Covington meetinghouse by the home brethren. Scriptures used were John 14:1-6, Ps. 23, and Matt. 11:28-30, and the hymns used were 411, 455, 403, 393, and 494. The body was laid to rest at the Miami Memorial Park near Covington, Ohio, to await the resurrection morn.

METZGER — Ralph Edward, son of Daniel and Lydia (Garber) Metzger, was born June 3, 1900, near North Manchester, Indiana. He departed this life in the early morning hours of Nov. 7, 1988. Through the blessings and the grace of Almighty God, his life span on earth was 88 years, 5 months, and 4 days.

Ralph was nurtured through his early childhood and into his teenage years on the family farm. Before he entered into his own career of farming he realized it would be difficult alone or by himself. In searching among his friends and acquaintances, he found a young woman who would be willing to walk the pathway of life with him. He and Flora Hazel Boocher were married on Oct. 25, 1919. In Aug., 1920, Flora was baptized into the Old German Baptist Church. One year later, on Aug. 4, 1921, Ralph made his commitment to God and accepted Jesus as his Lord. They were an enthusiastic and devoted couple in the Church, always available when something was to be done. Ralph and Flora were the church janitors for several years and in this work found their service to the congregation. For almost 69 years they walked hand in hand together. They enjoyed the blessings of life and shared in the sorrows that are likewise present. They enjoyed traveling and visiting when health permitted. This marriage covenant was terminated Aug. 17, 1988, when Flora was called into eternity. Ralph did not quite seem to recover from this tremendous loss.

Ralph and his family followed the farming occupation for many years, living on several different farms in the community. As the years began to take their toll on his life, they made the decision to quit farming and moved to a home near Laketon, Indiana. Ralph worked for Miller and Sons at Silver Lake. Here he gained a number of friends and the respect of those with whom he came in contact.

Finally, in Dec., 1984, they moved to Timbercrest Church of the Brethren Home, where he resided at the time of his decease. Ralph and Flora never ceased to mention the care and concern that the home and staff had for them.

He is survived by his 2 children, Arden, and Mrs. Loren (Helen) Miller; 3 grandchildren; 4 great-grandchildren; 7 stepgrandchildren; and 17 stepgreat-grandchildren. These will all cherish the fond memories of a loving and caring Dad and Grandpa.

Preceding him in death were his parents; 1 sister, Mary; and 1 brother, Glen.

Just a few hours preceding his being called into eternity, he called for the anointing service. This being accomplished by the Brethren, we leave him in the care of Almighty God. We believe that a life that has been spent in His service will be rewarded with Life Eternal.

A funeral service was conducted Wednesday, Nov. 9, at 10:00 a.m., in the North Manchester meetinghouse. Bro. Orvel Gish and Bro. Donald Brubaker held this service for family, friends, and Brethren. Thoughts were gleaned and gathered from 2 Tim. 4:6-8. Hymns used were 443, 452, and 494. After the reading of Ps. 23 and prayer, his body was laid to rest beside his dear companion in the church cemetery. There we leave them to await the resurrection morn.

Donald Brubaker

She was united in marriage with Wilmer Brubaker July 26, 1925, and lived on Quaker Trace Road on a farm until his passing Oct. 21, 1967.

In the summer of 1930, she, with her husband, was baptized into the fellowship of the Old German Baptist Church. Her faith was evident by her simple lifestyle and patience in affliction. On Sept. 28, 1988, she called for the anointing and was fully submitted to the will of the Lord.

He enjoyed fishing, followed baseball games and loved gospel music. He also enjoyed gardening, landscaping, cooking, and was an all around handy man. He was known as Uncle Dale to many. He played a very special part in all of our lives. He was a kind and caring person, whom we will all miss greatly.
